Passenger Comments – Oct 20 Cookeville Trip

By Terry Bebout

Hi Terry,

I just wanted to let you and your group of volunteers know how much we enjoyed the trip. This is the second time we have done it and we will do again. Everything was great. The hospitality in Cookeville from the live band to the merchants to dining was simply wonderful. They really rolled out the red carpet! We love going antiquing so we will be back to West Cookeville and we will eat at Crawdaddy's which was absolutely one of the best meals we've had lately. The only thing that we would do differently is to get dome seating!

We are very interested in the May 4 spring trip and look forward to the details on your website.

Just wanted to say thanks and give you some feedback.

Until next time,
Marilyn McKelvey

Local RRs in Walthers 2013 HO Catalog

By Dan Cole

I am happy to announce we have been published in the 2013 HO Walthers Reference Book! I had submitted photos and information to Walthers of the LA&SL RR as well as my own personal PACIFIC RR Co. layout. We scored three photos of the LA&SL and two of my personal PACIFIC RR Co. layout. They are: Page 299, LA&SL branch line logging scene with models by Robert Marsmaker, photo by Peter Slusarczyk, Dan Cole, and Wayne Frey; page 589, LA&SL RR main line, Union Pacific passenger train with models by Peter Slusarczyk & photo by Dan Cole; page 610, a mining and logging scene on Dan Cole's PACIFIC RR Co; models and photo by ; page 662, the Super Chief at Fontana on the LA&SL RR headed towards San Bernardino from LA; Super Chief model by Peter Slusarczyk, LA viaduct model by Bob Stevens, photo by Peter Slusarczyk, Dan Cole and Wayne Frey; page 627, a narrow gauge scene on Dan Cole's PACIFIC RR Co. layout with models and photo by Dan Cole. We have a copy of the new book at the Club layout with the pages tagged for you to look at. Editor's note- this large HO RR will be open to the public Saturday afternoon Nov 3, 1 pm to 4 pm in conjunction with the Division Meet & Model Train Show.

Nashville Ntrak News

by Jimmie Guthrie

The setup for Nashville Ntrak at the Whistlestop Weekend at Adventure Science Center (ASC) will be on the 6th of November. We will be there at the ASC until the 8th of January 2013.

Also in January, we have been invited to participate with the Mississippi Valley Ntrak in the World's Greatest Hobby Show in St. Louis MO. Further information about this will follow. We are hoping to participate in the Great American Train Show in Louisville KY in the month of February. We are going to try out some new style of clamps for our modules. Hopefully they will work and should cut down setup time. Also we are looking at purchasing a light-weight air compressor to use for the geezer gate. For those new members to the organization who have yet to see the geezer gate in operation come on out to the Adventure Science Center and see it in person.

Sick Call – Ken Herrell

Sent on by Frank Holt

Greetings all,

If you are regular with your FB usage you may have noticed that the number of my postings has been down sharply. I thought it a pulled muscle and its complications. It turned out to be multiple myeloma (cancer of the bone marrow), although I still do not have a definitive diagnosis yet. Keep me in your thoughts and I will keep in touch with y'all as I can. (Editor Note- Ken was a long-time member of TCRM and Nashville Ntrak)
