Hobby Shop News

By Fred Enters

First, the shop will be closed on Thursday, July 4. The shop will be open on Saturday July 6.

The TCRM Hobby Shop strives to provide a service and source of quality items for the Modeler. One way we do this is providing a 25% discount on most items in the store to all paid up TCRM members. We do not offer this discount on donated or used items. These items are priced well below retail and are great values in themselves. The shop also provides a special order service through several vendors for all TCRM members. However, some vendors have dropped TCRM from their wholesale lists and we can no longer receive wholesale prices from them. Other vendors require a minimum order before they will ship anything. This can and does create a problem particularly when ordering "SALE" items. There are times when a member orders an item on sale, but due to the minimum order policy, when the item is shipped, the sale is over and the price has increased. In the past, we have tried to honor the "SALE" price. On other items when we can honor the "SALE" price and offer the 25% discount, it has resulted in lost revenue for TCRM.

Therefore, effective 1 July 2019 we are changing our "SALE" pricing policy:

When an item is received, we will determine the best price for our customer and the Museum either by honoring the sale price without a 25% discount, or by selling the item at the actual retail price and provide the 25% discount. If an item is marked "NET"

No Thursday Night Meeting for June 2019

that item will not be offered the 25% discount. This still gives our customers a good price and it allows the Museum to continue operating the Hobby Shop. If you have any questions regarding the policy, please contact Fred Enters, tchobbyshop@gmail.com

Dear Team,

Today (May 27) at 8 am Barbara gave up her fight with cancer. She did not surrender but withdrew from the field in good order. We know that she is no longer in pain and that she is still looking over our shoulders. We love her, still. She knew it and returned that love.

Our sons, the granddaughters, her sister, and as many nieces as was humanly possible were here over the weekend, saying "Goodbye". With that accomplished, she folded her tents and left us. Last night, though she could not speak, we read her your cards one more time. Whenever Ben or I made an inappropriate comment (as we tend to do) she became agitated until we apologized and soothed her ruffled feathers. So I know that she heard and appreciated your loving words. Thank you.

We don't know about timing or arrangements yet. We do know that we want you to make your gifts to Guilda's Club, in lieu of flowers. When we do know the details we will send out a postscript, an invitation to a party to celebrate her life and her involvement in ours..... Peace, Grace, and Love, from the lonely scribe.
